

NATIONAL FAMILY ASSOCIATION FOR DEAF-BLIND

Empowering Families with Individuals who are Deaf-Blind

2023 Family Steve Perreault Award

The award is given annually in recognition of Steve Perreault, who worked and volunteered in the field of deaf-blindness nationally and internationally from the 1970s until he passed away in October 2019. Steve promoted strengthening advocacy for families of children with deaf-blindness and helped found NFADB.

Who is Eligible for the Award?

A family member of an individual with deaf-blindness who:

- ✓ Has shown outstanding service, advocacy, empowerment, or leadership
- ✓ Has had a lasting and profound impact on
 - one or more children or adults with deaf-blindness,
 - families of individuals with deaf-blindness, or
 - deaf-blind community

Who Can Nominate an Individual For the Award?

A family member of an individual who is deaf-blind who is a current NFADB member in good standing (become a member at nfadb.org*)

Deadline

Nominations must be submitted by January 15, 2023

Nomination Process

- ✓ Complete the nomination form*
- ✓ Submit two letters of support:
 - One from a family member of an individual who is deaf-blind
 - One from a professional

Announcement of the Award

Nominees will be announced in late Spring 2023 and the Award will be presented at NFADB's annual meeting, July 11, 2023.

For more information, visit www.nfadb.org* or e-mail award@nfadb.org*

*Clickable Hyperlinks